Islamic stream

Let's learn the "Islamic way of life"

Introduction

In our rapidly evolving modern world, integrating Islamic values in our children is the main goal of every parent.

The SSFH brings you the authentic Islamic values driven only from the Quran and Hadees.

When the confusion of authenticity is a big question, SSFH calls the answer by providing comprehensive range of Islamic values in our daily life routine.

Message From Stream Leader

"In a world that sometimes feel chaotic, the closeness with Allah Ta'ala is always a rescue. Through this endeavor, we aim to explore and highlight the core principles that guide and shape Islamic beliefs, ethics and daily practices.

With diverse teaching strategies, interactive conversations, visual aids, practical exercises, accommodates various learning preferences.

Shaikh Jawwad Moosa

Stream leader Islamic studies, SSFH

The Islamic Stream is divided into 3 main courses:

Sunnah way of Life: this includes day to day supplications, daily life actions and habits of the prophet and different roles of a Muslim in Islamic society

Fundamental Islamic concepts: this course is designed to explain core concepts such as the introduction to the creator, the Faith of a Muslim, and the Pillars of Islam

Islamic History: this gives an insight into stories of prophets and lessons for the believers, a comprehensive study of the life of prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) and great Islamic personalities from the companions of prophet, great scholars, scientist, conquerors and learning gems from their lives.

These three courses are subdivided into three learning levels; basic, intermediate, and advanced, according to the age and understanding of the child.
